My dear Mr Jewson

I enclose you the Certificate for the £20. for as usual I am short of funds, and what is still worse, short of health, for Mr Llanos has lately been very delicate, which has affected me most sensibly, for I am unfortunately of a most nervous constitution

I hope to hear good news of your little daughter. Give my love to your wife, and believe me to remain

Yours very sincerely
Fanny Fiedes de Llanos

My dear Mr Lennon

I sincerely thank you for your kind letter, and its contents, of which latter I stood much in need, I am most happy to learn that your daughter is recovering, and I trust that soon she will overcome disease, and that you will one day have the pleasure and happiness of seeing her perfectly recovered.

Mr Lennon is better, but news mail, which you may imagine keeps heavily upon me.

I think I mentioned to you that I had seen in the "Illustrated London News" that a pension of £80 had been granted to two ladies, on the decease of survivorship. Can you inform me if such benefit descended
